PORT OF GALVESTON

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is entered between the Panama Canal Authority (ACP), an autonomous legal entity established by the Constitution of the Republic of Panama under public law and having its main offices in Balboa, Panama in the Republic of Panama and the Port of Galveston, a public agency operated by the Board of Trustees of the Galveston Wharves and based in Galveston, Texas (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “parties”).

WHEREAS,

The parties hereto believe it is in their mutual interest to establish an alliance of cooperation aimed at facilitating international trade and generating new business by promoting the all water route between Asia and the Port of Galveston, via the Panama Canal;

Such new business would help to increase the present level of economic growth by increasing job opportunities and revenues within the Port of Galveston and increasing revenues at the Panama Canal;

The parties are constantly undertaking a series of activities aimed at improving customer service; and,

The parties desire to cooperate in improving their business practices and increasing their level of services available.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties agree to:

1. Undertake joint initiatives, subject to their respective regulations, to satisfy the above stated objectives which will include
  - a. Joint Marketing Activities – As convenient, the parties may elect to undertake joint marketing efforts to generate new shipping business. These joint marketing efforts may include, but are not limited to, joint advertising activities aimed at promoting the all water route; joint exhibitor booths at maritime events; joint press conferences; editorial placement and other public relations materials or activities of mutual interest.
  - b. Data Interchange - The parties may elect to share data that may be helpful in forecasting future trade flows, developing marketing strategies and obtaining additional knowledge about the shipping market. The parties may also exchange information on subjects of interest that may include transit information, type of commodities, cargo tonnage, future plans, and liner services, among others.

- c. Market Studies - The parties may elect to exchange information contained in studies performed by them or by their consultants or representatives that may be of interest to the other party. The information contained in the studies shall be treated in a confidential manner. The parties may also elect to perform joint studies that address their areas of respective interest.
  - d. Modernization and Improvements - The parties may elect to share information regarding improvements and/or modernization efforts being undertaken and which may have as a purpose the need of satisfying an increase in demand or improved customer services.
  - e. Training - The parties may elect to share information on training programs and may develop joint training seminars as well as cross-training activities.
  - f. Technological Interchange - The parties may elect to share their technological capabilities and programs as well as the information contained in them.
2. It is intended that this relationship will last for two years, renewable upon mutual agreement by both parties.
  3. Either party may terminate this MOU, by informing the other, in writing, and giving a thirty (30) day notice of termination.
  4. Both parties are free to form other partnerships, of a similar or identical nature, with other entities.
  5. This document sets forth the complete agreement of the parties with regard to this alliance of cooperation. This MOU may be amended in writing only, and such amendment shall be signed and dated by both parties.
  6. It is the intention of this MOU to set forth the general intentions of the parties, and not to set forth any legally binding rights or obligations. This MOU will be effective upon signature by the authorized representative of each of the parties.
